

JACQUELINE TABER RBA

Born 1946

Studied art in Paris for one year. Restoration for five years at the Gabinetto del Restauro at the Uffizi, Florence. At the same time attending the Studio of Signorina Simi.

One Man Exhibitions

Hayletts Gallery, Colchester 1989

Hayletts Gallery, Colchester 1992

Russell Gallery, London 2010

Shared Exhibitions

Foreign Press Association 1995

Foreign Press Association 1997

Lennox Gallery 2000,2002 2004

Russell Gallery 2004, 2007

Geedon Gallery 2013

Mixed Exhibitions

New English Art Club

The Minorities, Colchester

Castle Museum, Colchester

New Grafton Gallery, London

Royal Academy Summer Exhibition

Boisdales, London

Affordable Art Fair, London

Young Masters, London

Discerning Eye, Mall Galleries, London

Royal Society of British Artists

Quantam Contemporary, London

Kato Gallery, Japan

City Gallery, London

Thompson Gallery, Aldeburgh, Suffolk

CCA Gallery, Cambridge

Chateau Beauvoire, Saint Robert, France

Collins & Hastie, London

Young Masters, Atlanta, Georgia USA

Geedon Gallery, Essex

Russell Gallery London

Chelsea Arts Fair

Royal Collage of Art

Art for Youth

Jacqueline Taber has also exhibited widely throughout Essex and Florence and is a member of the Chelsea Arts Club, Colchester Arts Society, Royal Society of British Artists, Art Workers Guild and a liveryman of the Fishmongers Company She also owns The Geedon Gallery in Essex. She won the Dry Red Press award in 2015.